

Kelly J. Zúñiga, Ed.D.

Chief Executive Officer
Holocaust Museum Houston

Dr. Kelly J. Zúñiga serves as the CEO at the Holocaust Museum Houston, which is dedicated to educating people about the Holocaust, remembering the six million Jews and other innocent victims and honoring the survivors' legacy. She is responsible for all museum operations and reports to a 32-member Board of Trustees and a 75-member Board of Advisors. She also serves as the CEO for the Holocaust Museum Houston Foundation Board.

Dr. Zúñiga is a Certified Fund Raising Executive and adjunct lecturer at Texas A&M University's Bush School of Government & Public Service and serves as an adjunct lecturer for Art of Fundraising I at the Rice University Center for Philanthropy & Nonprofit Leadership at the Susanne M. Glasscock School of Continuing Studies. She is also a member of the Greater Houston Partnership's Executive Women's Partnership, the Houston Museum District Executive Board, and is a Sr. Fellow, American Leadership Forum Class of XXXIV.